The world of work

Discuss the following questions in pairs

- Have you ever had a holiday/a part time job? Talk about your experience.
- What would be your dream job? Why?
- What sort of job would you definitely not like to do?
- If you had enough money never to have to work, what would you do instead?
- Would you ever like to work in a foreign country? Why/why not?
- Do you think it is important to speak a foreign language when looking for a job?
- Think of an example of an easy/boring/tiring/useful/the worst job.

Find words to match the following definitions

- a job/employment (fml.)
- occupation
- a job that involves working with your hands and that needs special training and skills
- a trade
- a job that needs special training or skill, especially one that requires a high level of education
- a profession
- pay given to an employee who is away from work because of illness/money paid by the government to people who are away from work because of illness
- sick pay/sickness benefit
- to have an additional job that you do secretly, usually without paying tax on the extra money that you earn
- to moonlight

Explain the following sayings

- The early bird catches the worm.
- Many hands make light work.
- Every man is the architect of their own future.
- The shoemaker's son walks barefoot.
- Too many cooks spoil the broth.
- Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today.
- Early to bed and early to rise makes you healthy, wealthy and wise.

What to think about when choosing a job?

Work in groups of three or four.

Look at the list of things to think about when choosing a job.

Choose five of them, and rank them with the most important one first.

When you finish, compare your list with other groups.

- your colleagues
- the interest of the work
- the salary
- working hours
- the work environment
- the perks (company car, free health insurance, etc.)
- being close to where you live
- the chances for promotion
- learning new skills
- the opportunity to travel
- facing new challenges
- its social status
